A photograph showing a dense tropical forest with various green trees and foliage. The sky above is a clear, pale blue.

A photograph of a modern interior room, likely a sunroom or porch area. The walls are covered in vertical light-colored wood paneling. On the left, there's a small dining set with a wooden table and chairs. In the center, a large white planter holds a tall, spiky plant. To the right, there are two large glass doors or windows with black frames, leading out onto a balcony. The floor is made of light-colored tiles.

An aerial photograph of a modern residential complex. In the foreground, a large, light-colored sofa sits on a wooden deck next to a small blue umbrella. To the left, a large swimming pool is surrounded by a paved area and some greenery. The middle ground shows a paved walkway lined with palm trees and manicured hedges. In the background, several modern buildings with light-colored facades and large windows are visible. The overall scene is clean, bright, and well-maintained.

A photograph of a modern interior room. In the center is a large window with a black frame, showing a blurred view of the outside. To the left of the window is a white chair with a textured backrest. In front of the window is a blue ottoman with a small decorative object on top. To the left of the ottoman is a large potted plant with long, thin, light-colored leaves. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks. The overall aesthetic is clean and minimalist.
